General Information

1. The meet will be held under FINA and SASA Rules.
2. Competitors must be SASA registered.
3. All entries must have an entry time, either an accredited time or training time. Any "no time" (NT) entries will be rejected and no refund will be made.
4. All events are Heat Declared Winner.
5. The Gala Convenor retains the right to change warm-up times if necessary.
6. Manual timekeeping will be used.
7. Swimmers must report to marshalling 5 heats before their heat.
8. There will be no marshalling for presentations.
9. There will be no diving in the shallow end, so relay swimmers number 2 & 4 will be from in the water.
10. Any person wishing to take videos or photographs must sign a form at the recorder's table and display their tag.
11. Phones must be switched off in the changing rooms and turned to silent in the pool hall.
12. There is a limited number of lockers, so belongings must be taken on poolside if all lockers are full.
13. Swimmers should wear club kit and pool shoes on the poolside and when leaving the poolside.
14. Spectating space on the poolside is limited, so swimmers and coaches will have priority and it may be that no spectators will be in the pool hall.
15. Visiting teams must pick up a visitor's pass from reception and only have access to the canteen area, the changing rooms and the pool hall.
